

Calling cultural and creative organisations

Giving businesses unique access to London 2012 opportunities

Grab a slice of the 2012 action!

Community groups and third sector organisations are invited to a FREE workshop introducing the 2012 London Cultural Skills Fund.

The 2012 London Cultural Skills Fund is offering grants ranging from £25,000 - £50,000 for projects that offer skills, training and employment support in the cultural and creative sector.

The scheme, funded by the London Development Agency and managed by Arts Council England, has been created so that organisations who want to contribute to the excitement surrounding the London 2012 Cultural Olympiad have a chance to bring their creative projects to life!

The FREE workshop will introduce:

- The 2012 London Cultural Skills Fund- what projects can be funded, who can apply and how you apply
- Success stories - hear from organisations that have already successfully secured funding
- CompeteFor - a free web-based service providing instant access to thousands of London 2012 related opportunities

When: Thursday 11 June 2009, 6pm to 8.30pm

Where: Jasmine Studios, Shepherd's Bush Road, W6

Places are limited to one representative per organisation.

To reserve your place at this workshop, visit www.londonbusinessnetwork.org/events

Supported by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

